Fairmont Presbyterian Church

November 2018
Volume 73, Issue 9

THOUGHTS FROM BRIAN

There are so many great things happening at Fairmont! At our recent Children's Sabbath we saw many young faces leading in worship. On that same Sunday there were four babies attending worship for the very first time! Our young families' groups regularly gather for fellowship and prayer. We have welcomed 16 new members so far this year and Pastor Kelley as our new Associate Pastor. Our new Music Director, Vicki Ramga, will be starting rehearsals this month and in January will be restarting our bell choir. Connections, circles, Women of Fairmont, retreats, and the PYC all provide opportunities to go deeper with our faith. And we are so grateful for the renewal of our facilities this year with rebuilt bathrooms, a remodeled parlor, and new safety and security systems. While many churches are facing enormous challenges, Fairmont is blessed with vitality in sharing and showing God's love.

We are blessed by God without whom nothing is possible. We are also blessed by God through you and your generosity. Thank you! Your giving along with that of preceding generations makes everything we do possible. From the earliest days of the Apostles to Fairmont today, the Church of Jesus Christ has relied on the commitment and the prayers of its members. It is that shared commitment down through the ages that binds the church together as Christ's body in the world, still witnessing to Christ's hope, sharing Christ's love, and nurturing and inviting all into Christ's community. Now it is our turn.

Please join us on Sunday November 11 as we say yes to Fairmont, yes to hope, and yes to the future of Christ's church as we share our financial commitments for 2019. Our world is filled with so much fear, cynicism, materialism, and despair. Together let us show the world a better alternative. Together let us show and share the hope, the future, and the community of Jesus Christ.

NOTES FROM KELLEY

"A Stewardship of Love"

In this season of Giving and Thanksgiving, I am grateful to God for each of you as the Body of Christ at Fairmont Presbyterian Church. Stewardship is a challenging season for God's people. How do we, together, understand God's benevolence and grace? How do we live as people who are recipients of grace and forgiveness? How do we extend that grace to our neighbors and world? How do we seek God's face in the midst of a material world?

Being good stewards of God requires us, first, to examine our hearts and our treasures, knowing that where our treasure is there will be our heart. And, second, to recognize that we are called to be generous in our giving because we are the recipients of a generous and loving God. We cannot give authentically if we do not understand that we, ourselves, have been forgiven by God and lavished with love beyond our deserving. And our giving comes in all forms and sizes. To give a little with a grateful and genuine heart is greater than giving a lot with a resentful and prideful heart. Genuine stewardship is wrapped in our loving relationship with God and with one another.

We love because God first loved us. -1 John 4:19

Giving must come from a heart of love. As we have been so loved by God, we in turn are to love one another. All of our gifts - time, talent, tithes - are an act of love to a generous God.

BUDGET AND STEWARDSHIP

Thank You! Thank you for your generous financial support throughout 2018. Because of your generosity we have been able to expand the array of our programs and ministries especially for younger people, send our youth to church camp and on mission trips, make major improvements to our building, refurbish our hand bells, hire new staff, and expand our support to mission partners, all while welcoming new members. All of it depends on your generous support. You are making Fairmont a great and thriving house of faith.

New Ways to Give that Save Money: Taxpayers over 70 ½ years of age with an IRA or a 401K/403B accounts may transfer withdrawals (up to $100,000 per year) directly to Fairmont Presbyterian Church or other “qualified charitable organizations” and not pay tax on the distribution. Retirement savings accounts of various sorts require individuals over 70 ½ to annually make required minimum distributions or face significant tax penalties. Those distributions are then added to your taxable income, often boosting your tax bracket. But, if you direct those distributions in whole or in part to Fairmont or other charities, those funds do not count as taxable income. This transfer method can save you significant tax dollars. As always, you should consult with qualified advisors to help with tax planning, but using qualified charitable distributions may be an efficient way for you to support Fairmont!

On Pledging, from Pastors Brian and Kelley

We pledge our financial support to Fairmont and we want you to pledge, too.

God came to us in Jesus Christ not merely to forgive us, but also to involve us in God’s work in the world. We are not mere passive recipients of God’s grace. We are active participants in God’s great work of healing creation. And that work requires our commitment of prayer, love, labor, and money. Our world seems awash in cynicism, anger, and despair. Our culture grows ever more hostile to the Gospel and the human virtues it seeks to cultivate like love, patience, gratitude, and courage. Fairmont offers an alternative, God’s alternative—a life lived in and through God. Our whole ministry at Fairmont focuses on helping women and men from the baptismal font to the grave live into a new way of living and loving through the Spirit. We do this through our community, and all the ways we express welcome. We do it through our stories, sharing the stories of God’s people and discovering that our stories are a part of God’s. And we do it through sharing together in our service and disciplines of faith, walking the walk of faith.

All of that work, all the formation, nurture, teaching, service, worship, caring, and hospitality requires money. How we use our time and our money demonstrates to ourselves, others, and God where our true commitments lie. Our ministries are flourishing at Fairmont. The Spirit is at work in and through us. We are reaching both new members and community neighbors in new and different ways. While so many churches are dying, we are growing both quantitatively in membership and qualitatively ever deeper into the Spirit. We are participating in the exciting work of the Gospel here and now and we want you to be a part of it!

MISSION BEYOND THE CONGREGATION

Helping Hands, Helping Hearts

Christmas is around the corner, and so is Jeremiah's Letter!

The Mission Team is focusing our Christmas giving efforts on one project this year: Jeremiah's Letter. As in the past, this project provides local families with the ingredients for a nice Christmas dinner with additional groceries along with gifts for the family. We will be posting the color-coded trees with requested gift items for you to purchase and wrap. More details will be coming! With this increased local focus of our time and treasure, we will not be collecting Shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child or the Christmas Joy Offering.

3rd Sunday Mission Project: All Saints care and support. On November 18, we are writing notes of Love and Encouragement to family members of those members who died in the past year and are recognized on All-Saints Day. Join us in Fellowship Hall after each service to send your note to folks still grieving as the holidays approach. Many loving hands are needed to write these caring notes.

Dayton Fisher House: A Fisher House is a compassionate care facility much like a Ronald McDonald House, except these homes are for veterans and their families. Currently, 78 of these homes exist at military bases and VA medical centers in the United States, England, and Germany. Those 78 homes are now able to support 1,000 families each night. The Dayton area is blessed by having three of these homes: two at Wright Patterson AFB with a total of 21 bedrooms, and the newest one with 16 bedrooms at the Dayton VA. Dayton is now able to provide 37 room nights each day of the week or 13,505 room nights each year with a savings to our veterans and their families of over 2 million dollars a year in hotel costs.

Ground breaking for the new Fisher House occurred on October 23, 2017. One year later, the first family stayed at the new Fisher House on October 21, 2018. Ribbon cutting will be on November 7, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. at the Fisher House at the Dayton VA. Please know that you are welcome to tour the new facility that day!

There will be some pictures of the completed house shown on the TV monitors in the Fellowship Hall after both church services on November 4. Please come visit in person as the pictures don't do justice to the actual facility!

THANK YOU from Fisher Nightingale Houses, Inc. for the contributions made by Fairmont members to this very fine facility. With our collective contributions, our veterans who have done so much for all of us and their families will be able to use this facility for years to come.

DEACONS

Food and Fellowship will be resuming in the fall. It is a time for extended fellowship following either service. We will be looking for groups or individuals to host these times. It can be as simple as bagels and cream cheese, or as elaborate as the Deacons March Madness Pizza party, or somewhere between the two. The sign-up sheet will be available on the new bulletin boards in the Black and White Narthex.
